Waking up to an ocean view every morning is incredible—so is taking a dip in an infinity pool overlooking the beach. But none of it compares to being on the open water—diving off a boat, taking in the panoramic ocean views, and hearing the waves crash beneath you.

Of course, taking a luxury, multi-destination cruise is one way to hop around a certain part of the world. But if you're not someone who loves spending days at a time on the water, why not choose a stunning location or hotel where you can charter a private yacht right nearby? Some of your go-to spring and summer spots might have a nearby marina that you've overlooked all these years. Or perhaps you're seeking out a new beachfront town specifically for the enviable yachts and easily accessible marinas.

Whether you've sailed extensively in the Caribbean or are heading to Western Australia for the first-time to yacht through the oceanic expanse, we've compiled some of the best international yachting destinations for you to consider this year. These eight locales definitely need to be at the top of your spring and summer travel list.
