The Information We Collect

When you visit our Service we may collect information regarding your visit from your computer. Such information helps us to determine information about how you found our Service, the date that you visited our Service and search engines that may have led you to our Service. We collect this information in order to continually improve and enhance the functionality of the Service.

Generally, you may provide us with two types of information, User Content, which may include Personally Identifiable Information, and Website Usage Information, both of which are discussed in greater detail below.

1. Personal Information You Choose to Provide.

- a. Sign-Up Information. We will ask you to provide certain information if you choose to register with DLR, including your name, email address, address, telephone number, and other information (collectively “Personally Identifiable Information”).

Do not supply to us or disclose on the Service any Personally Identifiable Information of any person under 13 years of age, as we do not intend to collect information from anyone under 13 or invite to them to participate in the Service. If you are over 13 years of age but under 18 years of age, you are only able to utilize the Service under the supervision of a parent or legal guardian, and we may require the collection of Personally Identifiable Information from your parent (including the parent’s full name, email address, and credit card billing information, including mailing address) for you to obtain a username and password to access the Member areas of the Service. If you are over 13 years of age but under 18 years of age, the Service does not condition your participation in an online activity on you providing more information than is reasonably necessary for that activity.

- b. Questionnaires and Surveys. We may occasionally ask users of our Service to complete online surveys, questionnaires, and opinion polls about their activities, attitudes, and interests. These surveys help us to better serve you and improve the usefulness and features of the Service. In requesting your participation in these surveys, we may ask you to provide your name and email address to us.
- c. Contact Us. If you email us through the email address listed on our Service, info@CostaPalmas.com, we may ask you for information such as your name and email address so we can respond to your questions and comments. If you choose to correspond with us via email, we may retain the content of your email messages, your email address and our response to you. In certain cases, and with your permission, we may post content from your emails to us on the Service.

2. Website Usage Information:

- a. Cookies. DLR may use cookies to collect information for record keeping purposes and make it easier to navigate the Service. Cookies are small text files that are stored on users' hard drives, which often include an anonymous unique identifier. DLR uses both "session ID cookies" and "persistent cookies." Session ID cookies are used to store information while a user is logged into the site and expire when the user closes their browser. Persistent cookies are used to make tasks like logging into the site easier for returning users by remembering a user's login information, and may be used by your browser on subsequent visits to the Website. Persistent cookies stay on a user's hard drive from one session to the next. Persistent cookies can be removed by following your web browser's directions. A session cookie is temporary and disappears after you close your browser.

When you visit our Website, our computer may ask your computer for permission to employ the use of a session cookie or persistent cookie. Our Website will then send a cookie to your browser if your browser's preferences allow it.

Most web browsers can be adjusted to inform you when a cookie has been sent to you and provide you with the opportunity to refuse that cookie. However, refusing a cookie may, in some cases, preclude you from using, or negatively impact the display or function of, our Website or certain areas or features of our Website. You may choose not to receive cookies from the Service by following instructions in your web browser's "help" file, but this may make certain features of the Service inaccessible to you.

How the Website responds to "Do Not Track Mechanisms" can be found here.

- b. Clear GIFs/Beacons. When visiting our Website, we may also use "Clear GIFs" (aka "web beacons" or "pixel tags") or similar technologies in our Website and/or in our communications with you. A Clear GIF is typically a one-pixel, transparent image located on a web page or in an e-mail or other type of message, which helps us to verify an individual's viewing or receipt of a web page or message. Clear GIFs allow us to know whether you have viewed a web page prior to visiting our Website and may enable us to relate such information to other information, including your Personally Identifiable Information. We use information provided from Clear GIFs to enable more accurate reporting, improve the effectiveness of our marketing, and make our Service better for our users.
- c. IP Address and Clickstream Data. Our servers automatically collect data about your Internet Protocol address when you visit the Website. When you request pages from our Website, our servers may log your IP Address and sometimes your domain name. Our server may also record the referring page that linked you to us (e.g., another website or a search engine); the pages you visit on the Website; the website you visit after this Website; other information about the type of web browser, computer, platform, related software and settings you are using; any search terms you have entered on this Website or a referral website; and other web usage activity and data logged by our web servers. We use this information for internal system administration, to help diagnose problems with our servers, to analyze general usage patterns, and to administer our Website. Such information may also be used to gather broad demographic information, such as country of origin and Internet Service Provider. DLR may aggregate user information in a non-personally identifiable manner to share with advertisers and to enhance the Website with new features.

Any or all of these activities with regard to the above-described Website Usage Information may be performed on our behalf by our third-party service providers.

How We Use Your Information

1. Personal Information. If you submit information to us through the Service, including registration information, then we use this information to operate, maintain, and provide the features and functionality of the Service. DLR will use your email address to complete the signup process. By providing DLR your email address you consent to our using the email address to send you Service-related notices, including among other things notices required by law, in lieu of postal mail. You may not opt out of Service-related e-mails. We may also use your email address to send you other messages, including changes to Service features and special offers.

Rights to Opt-in / Opt-out. You have the right to “opt in” and/or “opt out” of certain of our uses of your Personally Identifiable Information. For example, you may have the opportunity to elect whether you would like to receive correspondence from us and/or third-party service providers. Your personal information will not be shared with third party service providers unless consent is given by you. You will have the opportunity to opt out of DLR’s promotional e-mails by clicking the “opt out” or “unsubscribe” link in the e-mail you receive. You can also request this by sending an e-mail to info@CostaPalmas.com, specifying whether: (i) you would like to opt out of receiving promotional correspondence from DLR in general, or just via e-mail, postal mail and/or by phone, and/or whether (ii) you would like to opt out of only certain of DLR’s e-newsletters or correspondence. Please understand that if you opt out of receiving promotional correspondence from us, we may still contact you in connection with your relationship, activities, transactions and communications with us.

2. Website Usage Information. We use non-Personally Identifiable Information, such as anonymous Website use data and IP addresses, to improve the quality and design of the Website and to create new features and services by storing, tracking, and analyzing your preferences and trends. We may use such information to: (a) remember information so that you will not have to re-enter it during your current or subsequent visits to the Website; (b) provide customized content and information; (c) monitor the effectiveness of our marketing campaigns and aggregate metrics such as total number of visitors and traffic; (d) diagnose or fix technology problems; (e) access your information after you sign in; (f) market our Website to advertisers and other third parties; (g) aggregate general User statistics including demographic and geographic information; and (h) other purposes for which your personal identity is not revealed.

3. Location-Based Services: We collect location-based information in order to provide specific location-based services which you may request. You understand that certain location-based services require a location to function properly, and your use of Service on your mobile device with such features enabled signifies your agreement to use your location for the purposes of the Service.

When We Share Information

DLR will not share your email address with advertisers or unaffiliated third parties without first obtaining your express permission.

We may provide information, including personal information, to our subsidiaries, affiliated companies, or subcontractors, so such parties can, among other things (a) perform services and/or process such information on our behalf, (b) use the information to offer greater functionality and enhanced services through the Website, and provide you with additional product and service opportunities, and (c) communicate these opportunities to you. When we do this, the recipients of your information are bound by the terms of this Privacy Policy.

We may share non-Personally Identifiable Information (such as anonymous Website use data) with third-parties to assist them in understanding our Website, including Users' use of our Website and the services we provide and the success of advertisements and promotions.

We may share non-personally identifiable aggregated user data, such as aggregated gender, age, height, weight, and usage data (without the inclusion of a user's name or other identifying information) to advertisers and other third parties for their marketing and promotional purposes.

We may use analytics services provided by third parties that use cookies and other similar technologies to collect information about the Service without identifying individual visitors. The third parties that provide us with these services may also collect information about your use of third-party websites and applications.

We may share location-based information with third parties for their marketing and promotional purposes if you have allowed location-based services as described above.

We may release your information if required to do so by law, or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary to comply with applicable laws or respond to a court order, subpoena, law enforcement or regulatory request, or search warrant. We reserve the right to collect and share any information: (i) in order to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding suspected or actual illegal activities; (ii) as appropriate or necessary to enforce our Terms of Use or investigate potential or actual violations of the Terms of Use or Privacy Policy; (iii) take precautions against liability; (iv) to protect the security or integrity of our Website; (v) to exercise or protect our rights and property, the Website, or the rights and personal safety of DLR affiliates, Users or others; or (vi) for other legitimate purposes.

We may assign or transfer the information we collect to a third party in the event that DLR is acquired by or merged with a third party entity, or due to our bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, receivership, or similar situation. We reserve the right to transfer any information we have about you in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets. Should such a sale or transfer occur, we will use reasonable efforts to direct the transferee to use personal information you have provided through this Website in a manner that is consistent with this Privacy Policy.

Our Commitment to Children’s Privacy

Protecting the privacy of young children is especially important and is mandated by U.S. law. For these reasons, DLR does not knowingly collect Personally Identifiable Information on the Service from persons under 13 years of age, and no part of our Service is directed to persons under 13. If you are under 13 years of age, then you must not use or access the Service at any time or in any manner or provide any information to the Service. If we become aware that we have inadvertently received personal information from a visitor under the age of 13 on our Service, we will delete the information from our records.

What Your Verifiable Consumer Request Must Contain: The verifiable consumer request must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected Personal Information or are an authorized representative of such person.
- Describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with Personal Information if we cannot verify your identity or your authority to make the request or if we cannot confirm the Personal Information relates to you.

We will only use Personal Information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request.

Frequency of Submitting a Verifiable Consumer Request: You may only make a verifiable consumer request for access or data portability twice within a 12-month period.

Response Timing and Format

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within forty-five (45) days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to a total of 90 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

We will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option.

Any disclosures we provide will only cover the 12-month period preceding the date of our receipt of the verifiable consumer request. The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable. For data portability requests, we will select a format to provide your Personal Information that is readily useable and should allow you to transmit the information from one entity to another entity without hindrance, specifically by electronic mail communication.

We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your verifiable consumer request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that your request is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded, we may either: (a) tell you why we made that decision and refuse to respond to your request, or (b) provide you with a cost estimate of reasonable fees reflecting administrative costs involved before completing your request, and if you still wish to proceed, collect such fees from you prior to carrying out such request.

Personal Information Sales Opt-Out and Opt-In Rights

DLR does not sell your Personal Information. Accordingly, the rights granted under the CCPA enabling users 16 years of age or older to opt-out of sales of Personal Information, and for users between 13 and 16 years of age to specifically opt-in to sales of Personal Information, are not applicable to DLR's information processing activities.

Non-Discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your CCPA rights. Unless permitted by the CCPA, we will not:

- Deny you goods or services.
- Charge you different prices or rates for goods or services, including through granting discounts or other benefits, or imposing penalties.
- Provide you a different level or quality of goods or services.
- Suggest that you may receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services.

Shine the Light

Under California's "Shine the Light" law (California Civil Code §1798.83), California residents who provide personal information in obtaining products or services for personal, family or household use are entitled once per calendar year to request and obtain from us information about the customer information we shared, if any, with other businesses for their own direct marketing uses. If applicable, this information would include the categories of customer information and the names and addresses of those businesses with which we shared customer information for the immediately prior calendar year (e.g. requests made in 2017 will receive details concerning 2016 sharing activities).

To obtain this information, please send an email message to info@CostaPalmas.com with "Request for California Privacy Information – Shine the Light" on the subject line and in the body of your message. We will in turn provide the requested information on covered sharing to you at your e-mail address.
